Student health insurance is now optional.

Effective Fall 2013, there will no longer be a mandatory student health insurance fee charged to students. This means that you will not see a charge on your student account for the student health insurance.