

New Orleans, LA -- Interim Athletic Director, Kiki Baker Barnes announced the launching of Dillard University's new athletic website today. Dillard University is continuing its tradition of excellence in communications by providing yet another avenue of opportunity for its various constituents. Alumni, faculty, staff, students, and parents will be able to follow the progress of Blue Devil sports via the new website by visiting www.dillard.edu

and clicking on the athletics tab or by visiting directly.

"This is the first truly comprehensive athletics website for Dillard Athletics," said Barnes. Dillard Athletics partnered with eSolution Architects, Inc. to develop the new site using its content management system, SIDHelp. Dillard University is the second school in the GCAC (also powered by SIDHelp) to join the SIDHelp network.
