

Dillard University hosts a Crime and Punishment Symposium this week entitled "African-Americans in a "Post-Racial (?) United States", with guest speakers, scholars, public officials, inmates and professors weighing in. The three-day event will be held in the Georges Auditorium in PSB.

Watch this video for more details...