

On Friday, March 23, 2012 a group of Dillard University students gathered to peacefully protest the recent killing of Trayvon Martin. The students sang, chanted and prayed for justice and for peace for the family of the slain youth.

Read more about the protest here...