

Open hearts. Open minds. Open doors.

The people of The United Methodist Church®

Dillard President Dr. Walter Kimbrough shares his thoughts on the value of certain majors in college.

The humanities fields, which speak to the human condition, are viewed as less valuable because they don't generate enough money. But I ask, "Enough money for what?"

Read more of this commentary on the United Methodist Church website www.umc.org.