

A gathering of black leaders and HBCU presidents meet in Washington, D.C. next week for the White House Initiative on Black Colleges conference. Much of their discussion will be about HBCU presidential vacancies and potential candidates. Dillard's Dr. Walter Strong is mentioned as a highly sought prospect for a top position as a president of an HBCU.

Read more about the conference here...

---