

The greenhouse on the Dillard University campus is being put to good use. A new $20,000 grant awarded by the Greater New Orleans Foundation will help Dillard biology students and faculty seed and grow healthy food for neighboring schools and the Gentilly community. The grant will help expand the "From Seed to Table" initiative that began in 2012.

Read more about the grant on nola.com...

