

Dillard University hosted the Fourth Annual Louisiana Women's Conference, which honored healthcare professional Deborah Smith, PhD. Smith received the 2012 Most Powerful and Influential Women Award as a result of her work as a woman leader and as a change agent for healthcare. The award was presented by Donna Brazile, Vice Chairwoman of the Democratic National Committee, and Dennis Kennedy, Founder & CEO of the National Diversity Council.

Read more about the event here...

