

Dillard alumna Ariel "Mighty" Mitchell cherishes her job as a Harlem Globetrotter. Not only does she get to play the game she loves every night in front of supportive fans, she appreciates the opportunity to be a role model for young girls.

"It's also just showing little girls, that women can do a men's sport," Mitchell said.

Read more about Ariel on mywesttexas.com...