

Dillard University will host a special session of the U.S. Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals to hear oral arguments from five cases on Wednesday, February 6, 2013. Dillard University students are invited to learn and see the working mechanisms of the American judicial system in the Justice Revis O. Ortique Jr. Mock Trial Center, in the Professional Studies Building. The event begins at 10 a.m.

Read more about it in the Journal of Blacks in Higher Education...

and in theadvocate.com...

