

In an opinion piece for the L.A. Times, Dillard President Dr. Walter Kimbrough pens a question to hip hop moguls Dr. Dre and Jimmy lovine asking them why they didn't consider giving their large donation to a black college instead of to the already well-endowed university, USC.

"I do hope it will recruit and enroll a diverse class of students and not become some enclave for the already privileged student body there," says Kimbrough.

Read the full article here...

and on www.sacbee.com...

and on ireport.cnn.com...

and on zimbio.com...

and on beforeitsnews.com...

and on blackgossip.org...

and on tallahassee.com...

and on theroot.com...

and on madamenoire.com...

madamenoire.com...

---