

The Honorable Yolanda J. King, a Dillard graduate from the Class of 1979, will take the oath of office as Judge of Orleans Parish Juvenile Court, Section "E" on June 24, 2013 at 6 p.m. in the Georges Auditorium. King was elected on May 4, 2013, and brings more than 20 years of legal experience to bench. E=before being elected, King held a number of judicial and administrative positions including Administrative Law Judge with the Division of Administration in Baton Rouge, La.; Assistant District Attorney with the Orleans Parish District Attorney's Office; Law Clerk for current Chief Judge Carl E. Stewart, '71, of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit; as well as research attorney for several prominent judges including Louisiana Supreme Court Justice Bernette Johnson. The campus community is invited to attend.