

---

The Office of Research and Sponsored Programs plays an all-encompassing role that includes grant proposal preparation and submission, award negotiation, acceptance, and the successful completion and closeout of projects.

Under Assistant Vice President Theodore Callier's leadership and the collaborative engagement of faculty PI's, Dillard University continues to strengthen and diversify its Research and Sponsored Programs base in 2013.