

The Office of Research and Sponsored Programs (ORSP) serves as the University's central administrative unit responsible for securing external resources through grants and contracts and providing financial and contractual stewardship of awards. ORSP provides dynamic and proactive services to cultivate and maximize external resources for relevant research, scholarly and creative pursuits. ORSP provides guidance and support to the university community, while ensuring protection of the university's contractual and regulatory obligations as well as accountability to external funding sources. The vision of the ORSP is directly linked to the University's mission and Strategic Pillar III.
