

Dillard University's modest endowment is a key source of annual income that provides a perpetual and solid foundation for the university's annual operation, scholarships and critical programs. This unrestricted endowment allows for flexibility that enables the President and senior cabinet to address the university's greatest changing needs in years to come.

Click Here For Additional Information