

When you live and learn on a campus like Dillard's, your whole life is integrated with your educational goals and experiences.

Occupancy in Dillard's residential units varies from singles to quads, with a majority of the rooms on campus housing two students. All residential units are furnished with standard college furniture (bed, dresser, desk, chair, and bookcase) and each residential unit has Internet access, basic cable television, and local telephone service. Each university apartment has a stove, refrigerator and standard living room furniture, and is accessible through a card-access system. For off-campus facilities (DUAL Apartments), shuttle service to campus is available when the university is open.
