

Dillard University's mission is to provide a rich academic environment for students to learn and thrive. The University honors academic excellence as the exemplary trait in a student and features an array of honor societies to recognize these accomplishments.

Listed below are the honor societies open to the Dillard University community.

Alpha Chi

The National College Honor Scholarship Society Alpha Chi is a general honor society open to students from all academic disciplines. Alpha Chi's mission is to promote academic excellence and exemplary character among college and university students.

Phi Eta Sigma

The National College Honor Scholarship Society Alpha Chi is a general honor society open to students from all academic disciplines. Alpha Chi's mission is to promote academic excellence and exemplary character among college and university students.

Read more about the Phi Eta Sigma activities in the latest volume of "Forum".

Alpha Kappa Mu

Alpha Kappa Mu is a General Scholarship Honor Society open to Junior and Senior men and women of all academic disciplines.

Beta Kappa Chi

A Scientific Honor Society, Beta Kappa Chi credits students who emphasize the qualities of training and performance in their efforts to interpret the place of science in liberal education, while honoring the society's slogan; "Science holds the golden key to the Royal Palace of Knowledge."

Psi Chi

The National Honor Society in Psychology, Psi Chi honors students demonstrating encouraging and stimulating academic excellence while advancing the science of psychology.

The Omicron Delta Kappa Society

A society open to college students as well as faculty, staff, administrators and alumni, The Omicron Delta Kappa Society recognizes superior