

The role of the Office of Corporate and Foundation Relations is to secure unrestricted and restricted major funding, as well as establish effective partnerships that complement and advance the shared values and goals of the university and the corporate and foundation community. The support of alumni is welcome in facilitating new partnerships and securing donations. If you have an affiliation with a corporation or foundation and would like to assist in the university's development efforts, please contact Marc Lundberg.

Marc Lundberg
Office of Annual Giving
(504) 816-4580