

Perspective Dillard University (DU) students will have to bring their game to the DU campus on Saturday, Mar. 24 for the 2012 Spring Auditions and Open House. Auditions will be held for music, theater and visual arts talent-based scholarships. Students are requested to bring any necessary items to audition.

In addition to auditions, students will have the opportunity to complete the admissions process, speak to admissions and financial aid counselors, tour the campus, and speak with current students and faculty members.
