

Back by popular demand, VisionQuest will host another "Message in the Middle" service this Wednesday, April 4, 2012 in Lawless Memorial Chapel. Beginning at noon, "Message in the Middle" will include music from the VisionQuest Chorale, dance from the Liturgical Dance Company and a powerful message from all the participants.

The uplifting event will feature another stellar guest preacher, Reverend BaSean Jackson. He attended Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia where he earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Religion in 1997. Minister Jackson continued his theological education at the Morehouse School of Religion of the Interdenominational Theological Center where, he obtained a master of Divinity with a double concentration in New Testament and Theology. He graduated with honors as a member of the International Honors Society of Theta Phi. He received a Master of Theology from Candler School of Theology at Emory University. Dillard University welcomes Reverend BaSean and looks forward to his sermon.

For more information about this event, contact Joshua Lazard at jlazard@dillard.edu or (504) 816-4555.