

Dillard University Adjunct Professor of Art Muffin Bernstein is an international artist. Her works will be shown in galleries and exhibits across the globe this year. From Grand Isle, Louisiana to Dublin, Ireland to Magnolia, Arkansas and Ferrara, Italy, the visual artist and sculptor will exhibit her collages which often focus on plant and insect life forms in a variety of shows.

This spring, Bernstein is one of fifty artists selected to participate in the inaugural Dublin Biennial opening June 15 and continuing through June 24, 2012. The exhibition will be held at the Sol Gallery in the city center. Bernstein is also having a solo show at Southern Arkansas University in Magnolia, Arkansas beginning in September. She will be giving a lecture and workshop.

Bernstein's work has been selected to be part of the exhibition Liberated Dreams in Ferrara, Italy, opening April 21 and continuing through May 30, 2012. The exhibition, curated by Paola Trevisan, will be held in the Estense Castle Museum.

In May, Bernstein's work will be included in an exhibition curated by Stefania Carrozzini at the Onishi Gallery in New York City. The exhibition, You must have a chaos within in you to give birth to a dancing star will open with a preview on May 24th and continuing on view through June 6, 2012.

Closer to home, Bernstein will also be part of the 10th Annual Grand Isle Juried Exhibit 2012: A New Journey.

The exhibition will be on view at the Grand Isle Civic Center from April 14 through April 22.
