

Dillard University would like to congratulate Glenda McNeal (pictured), First Vice Chair of the Dillard University Board of Trustees, on her promotion from Senior Vice President, Global Partnerships, at the American Express Company to Executive Vice President and General Manager, Global Client Group within Merchant Services Americas. In more than 20 years with American Express, Glenda McNeal has demonstrated the highest levels of talent and vision, developing global merchant relationships representing over $150 billion in charge volume.

She has brought the same tireless energy and goal-oriented approach to her work on the Dillard University Board of Trustees, and for that we are grateful.

Please join us in congratulating a distinguished Dillard alumna, Glenda McNeal, '82, on her well-deserved promotion.□

Marvalene Hughes, Ph.D.
President