

Tickets for the Inaugural Justice Revis O. Ortique, Jr. Lecture on Law and Society are now available for Dillard University faculty, students, staff, alumni and friends. The lecture will take place on Thursday, Nov. 11 at 5:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Professional Schools and Sciences Building.

United States Attorney General Eric Holder (pictured) will keynote the lecture. After the lecture, there will be a dedication ceremony for the Justice Revis O. Ortique, Jr. Mock Trial Center. A reception will follow.

Seating is limited, so please pick up your tickets by Wednesday, Nov. 10 in Rosenwald Hall, Room 230. Admission is free. Individuals unable to obtain seating in the PSB auditorium may view a simulcast of the event in the Cook Theater.

For more information, please click here, or contact Troy Baldwin or Brenda Reynolds at (504) 816-4423.