

Students will be allowed to drop a course(s) during the stated open registration dates via Online Web Registration. Thereafter, you must complete a drop course form and pay the appropriate fee. Drop forms are available in the Office of Records & Registration.

You will be allowed to add a course during the stated open registration dates through Online Web Registration only.