

The estimated annual cost of attendance at Dillard University for the 2014-2015 school year is listed below. These costs are based on full-time enrollment for the Fall & Spring semesters.

The Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships utilizes these budgets to determine how much financial aid will be offered. Total financial aid offered from all sources, including private sources, cannot exceed the total cost of attendance. Students who have unusual circumstances are encouraged to contact the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships. With appropriate documentation, we may be able to adjust these budgets to allow for personal circumstances.

Billable Costs:

Billable costs are charges that must be paid directly to the university. Students are responsible for billable costs upon registration. Payment plans are available. Contact the Office of Business and Finance for more information regarding payment arrangements.

On-campus rooms and rates will vary based on the housing arrangements. The above rate is valid for Camphor Hall. Room and board costs for students residing in other on-campus housing facilities will be adjusted based on actual living arrangements.

Non-Billable Costs:

Non-billable costs are estimated expenses that may be incurred by the student. These expenses are not paid to the university. Indirect costs will vary based on several factors, such as individual spending habits and personal preferences.
