

The calendar is still under consideration for 2012-2013. Please check back with us soon.

Applications for review by the convened IRB must be received by in the Office of Human Research Support at least 2 weeks prior to a scheduled meeting date. For example, if the PI wishes the on review on December 1, 2012, the application must be submitted no later than November 17, 2012. This makes possible the timely distribution of the application to the IRB members and facilitates a substantive evaluation of the submission.
