

Enjoy this special edition of the Louisiana Now! featuring Dillard University in New Orleans, La., a United Methodist institution.

LOUISIANA
Now!

NEW ORLEANS, LA. 70112-1000
ISSUE NO. 17
JANUARY 27, 2012

Community Service 1

Dr. Kennesaw

Business 1

Dillard Choir performs at the White House

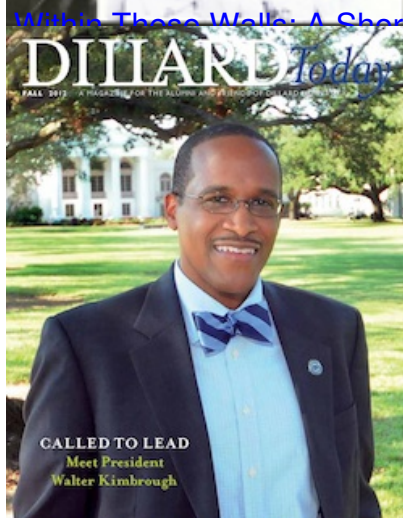

When the Dillard Choir, the oldest and largest African American choir in the South, performed at the White House on January 27, 2012, they were joined by the President and First Lady. The choir, which has been performing for over 100 years, was led by Dr. Kennesaw. The performance was a highlight of the evening, and the choir received a standing ovation from the President and First Lady. The choir's performance was a testament to the rich cultural heritage of the African American community in the South.

The Dillard Choir, the oldest and largest African American choir in the South, performed at the White House on January 27, 2012. The choir, which has been performing for over 100 years, was led by Dr. Kennesaw. The performance was a highlight of the evening, and the choir received a standing ovation from the President and First Lady. The choir's performance was a testament to the rich cultural heritage of the African American community in the South.

Louisiana Now!, January 2012

Within These Walls: A Short History of Dillard University \(2000\)

Dillard Today, Winter 2011

Research and Sponsored Programs, 2010 Annual Report

Strategic Pillars 2008-2013

President's Five Year Report