Honors Convocation

THURSDAY, MARCH TWENTY-THIRD
TWO THOUSAND AND TWENTY-THREE
ELEVEN O’CLOCK IN THE MORNING

LAWLESS MEMORIAL CHAPEL
“When I arrived at Dillard University, faculty, staff, and alumni would often say that “Dillard is what you make it.” Throughout my time at the university I’ve had the opportunity to meet new faces across ‘the Oaks.’ Some interactions were for a season, and some will last a lifetime. My experiences at the University have been filled with opportunity and doors opened by God through the helping hands of my family here at Dillard. I am excited and thankful to be a part of this institution, and to be amongst a family of world changers. This experience is truly what you make it.”

Jaylon Moore, Class of 2025

“The last four years at Dillard University have been life changing. I have grown tremendously as a scholar, leader, and woman. I credit this to the opportunities afforded to me by Dillard University. I know that I could not have gained such an unique and fulfilling experience anywhere else. I am confident that I will leave this institution fully equipped with the tools to act courageously to make the world a better place.”

Paulina Webber, Class of 2023
LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING

JAMES WELDON JOHNSON & J. ROSAMOND JOHNSON

Lift every Voice and sing, 'til earth and heaven ring,
   Ring with the harmonies of liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise high as the list'ning skies
   Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song, full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song, full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
   Let us march on 'til victory is won.

Stony the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat, have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come, over a way that which tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past, 'til now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who hast by Thy might, led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest, our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand, may we forever stand,
   True to our God, true to our native land.

FAIR DILLARD

WILLIAM STUART NELSON & FREDERICK D. HALL

Fair Dillard,
Gleaming white and spacious green,
We love thy every blade and tree.
We love thy breathless days, thy nights serene,
   Thy halls where men are men and free.
Arise, O sons and daughters, hail thy queen,
   And pledge for aye, thy loyalty.

Fair Dillard,
Flaming love and learning’s light,
Teach us each day, each passing hour.
A deep'ning love for beauty, truth and right.
   Source of all nobleness and pow’r.
And, through the joyous day, the dreaded night,
   Forever guide, Alma Mater!
   Forever guide, Alma Mater!

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

The history of traditional academic dress is traced to the 12th century when Oxford University was founded and to the medieval European universities of the 14th century. Although European universities follow varied patterns in cut and color of gown and type of head dress, academic dress at American colleges and universities is fairly standardized.

The traditional academic gown is usually black. The pattern varies with the degrees held. The bachelor’s gown has a simple design, with long, pointed sleeves as its distinguishing mark. The master’s gown has oblong sleeves with the rear cut square and the front featuring a cutaway arc.

The most elaborate academic costume is the doctoral gown, with velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars across the sleeves. The velvet is usually black, but it may be a color designating the subject to which the degree pertains.

The hood of the doctoral gown features velvet trimmings, the width of which designates the level of the degree. The color of the hood indicates the major field of study, and its lining identifies the institution that granted the degree. Dillard’s doctoral gown is navy blue with front panels and four cobalt blue chevrons trimmed in metallic gold.

The following colors are associated with the various academic disciplines:

- Agriculture: Maize
- Arts, Letters, Humanities: White
- Commerce, Accountancy, Business: Drab
- Dentistry: Lilac
- Economics: Copper
- Education: Light Blue
- Engineering: Orange
- Fine Arts, including Architecture: Brown
- Forestry: Russet
- Journalism: Crimson
- Law: Purple
- Library Science: Lemon
- Medicine: Green
- Music: Pink
- Nursing: Apricot
- Optometry: Sea Foam Green
- Oratory: Silver Gray
- Pharmacy: Olive Green
- Philosophy: Dark Blue
- Physical Education: Sage Green
- Podiatry, Chiropody: Nile Green
- Public Administration, including Foreign Service: Peacock Blue
- Public Health: Salmon Pink
- Science: Golden Yellow
- Social Work: Citron
- Theology: Scarlet
- Veterinary Science: Gray
Jatavian “Jay” Williams was born and raised in Shreveport, LA. He came to New Orleans on an academic scholarship to attend Dillard University. In 2006, Jatavian graduated magna cum laude from Dillard with a B.S. in Political Science. In 2009, Jatavian earned a Juris Doctor from Loyola University New Orleans College of Law. While in law school, he was a member of the Loyola Moot Court Team, the Loyola Trial Advocacy Program, as well as a student member of the St. Thomas Moore Inn of Court. In 2007, he received the Gillis Long Public Service Award in recognition of his successful efforts for representing residents during blighted property adjudication hearings following Hurricane Katrina. Also, Jatavian received the 34th National Trial Competition Award for Best Closing Argument Oralist in 2009.

Prior to joining his law firm in 2014, Mr. Williams began his legal career by serving as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable June B. Daresburg, 24th Judicial District Court, from 2009-2011. Following his Jefferson Parish clerkship, he then served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Herbert A. Cade and the Honorable Paula A. Brown, Civil District Court, Orleans Parish, from 2011-2014. Mr. Williams is admitted to practice law before the Louisiana Supreme Court, the United States District Courts for the Eastern, Middle, and Western Districts of Louisiana, as well as the United States Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit. He is a proud member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., as well as the Greater New Orleans Louis A. Martinet Legal Society, Inc. Jatavian is now a Partner at Glago Williams, LLC.

In 2017 the National Academy of Jurisprudence recognized him as a “Premier 100 Attorney in Louisiana.” In 2018, Jay’s alma mater Dillard University acknowledged him as a top “40 Under 40” distinguished alumni. Also, in 2018, Jay was recognized as being one of the “10 Best Attorneys in Louisiana for providing Exceptional and Outstanding Client Service” by the American Institute of Personal Injury Lawyers. The National Trial Lawyers organization recognized Jay as being a “Top 40 Under 40” Civil Plaintiff attorney since 2019 through present. He also served as a mentor in the Dillard University Legal Education Advancing Diversity (L.E.A.D.) Mentorship Program. In 2020, Jay was awarded the Dillard University Outstanding Young Alumni Award. Mr. Williams has been ranked as a “Rising Star” top attorney by Super Lawyers Magazine from 2020 through present. In 2023, New Orleans Magazine recognized him as a “Kingfish.”

Inspired by his compassion to serve and to deliver justice to his clients by helping victims of serious injury, Jay’s law practice primarily focuses on personal injury, civil litigation, and class action cases. Jatavian is happily married to his high school sweetheart - Tia Janae Williams. Together, he and his wife are the proud parents of their two beautiful daughters, Jayla and Jordyn Williams.
The philosophy embedded in, “we learn not for school, but for life,” forms the foundation of belief for the Daniel C. Thompson/Samuel DuBois Cook Honors Program at Dillard University. This philosophical basis declares the program’s dual commitment to nurturing the intellectual potential of highly motivated students and to providing a moral and ethical framework for responsible social activism in a multicultural, global context.

The Daniel C. Thompson/Samuel DuBois Cook Honors Program is dedicated to producing graduates who excel, become world leaders, are broadly educated, culturally aware, and concerned with improving the human condition. Using a highly personalized, learning-centered approach, Dillard University Honors students will meet the competitive demands of a diverse, global, and technologically advanced society.

Dr. Daniel C. Thompson was a longtime staple at Dillard University beginning in 1945. Throughout his tenure, Dr. Thompson served as: instructor of sociology, professor of sociology, chairman of the social science division and vice president of academic affairs.

A native of Green County, Georgia, Dr. Thompson received his B.A. at Clark College, his B.D. from Gammon Theological Seminary, his M.A. (Sociology) at Atlanta University, M.A. from Harvard (Social Relations), and his Ph.D. (Sociology) from Columbia University in 1955.

Dr. Samuel DuBois Cook led Dillard University as President from 1974-1997. A native of Griffin, Georgia, Dr. Cook received his B.A in history from Morehouse College in 1948, an M.A. from Ohio State University in 1950, as well as, a Ph.D. in 1954, both in political science. His teaching experience includes positions at Atlanta University, Duke University, and UCLA. When hired at Duke, he became the first African American professor to teach at the university, also the first African American to hold a regular faculty appointment at any predominantly White college or university in the entire South. He also served as a Social Science Specialist to the United States Army from 1953-55. Dr. Cook’s writings include articles on Martin Luther King, Jr., African American revolutionary movements, and political movements in the South.

Cook sought to elevate Dillard in all aspects, but held the students in special regards. Cook wanted to instill a particular pride into Dillard students, with a major focus on academic excellence.
