

DILLARD
UNIVERSITY

YOUR LEGACY BEGINS HERE

Our “Golden Grads” (50th anniversary) return to the Avenue of the Oaks to celebrate with the current graduating class.

OUR DILLARD LEGACY

At Dillard University,
you are never far from the idea of legacy.

The legacy of the institution lies with those who fought to create it, and the alumni who continue to cultivate Dillard’s reputation long after their walk through the oaks has passed. This proud heritage is enriched with every triumph achieved, every campus connection made and every homecoming parade and graduation ceremony celebrated.

Dillard’s eternal legacy is exhibited in students who know where they’re going because they know where they came from. It is solidified by students who know their potential because they understand the gravity of their past and by students who know Dillard University is not just where young Black students go to receive a higher standard of education – it’s a sanctuary of solidarity, built for and by their own.

Dillard University is a place where students, inspired by the examples of their predecessors, are encouraged to author their own legacies, ensuring that they too will have a hand in writing the next chapter of the Dillard story. Dillard is, because they were. Dillard will be, because you are. Together, we’ll make future history.

ENVISION YOUR SUCCESS

As the oldest historically Black college and university (HBCU) in Louisiana, Dillard University scholars receive post-college preparedness for a variety of industries. The campus is the foundation for learning, mentorship, friendship and the pathway to professional careers.
