LAWLESS MEMORIAL CHAPEL

“My time at Dillard University has been shaped by the relationships cultivated with faculty, staff, and most importantly, fellow Bleu Devils. My journey to this moment can attest to the depth of impact these relationships have had on me. Though my journey at the Oaks is coming to an end, I will always cherish those who have supported my endeavors and challenged me to always strive for greater.”

Tyler Finley, Class of 2024

“Dillard University has helped shape me into the leader and person I am today! During my time at Dillard University, I have faced many challenges that will prepare me to enter the workforce or graduate school with the knowledge and confidence to excel! I am a proud Bleu Devil!”

Lena Uddyback, Class of 2024

LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING

JAMES WELDON JOHNSON & J. ROSAMOND JOHNSON

Lift every Voice and sing, 'til earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise high as the list'ning skies
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song, full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song, full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on 'til victory is won.

Stony the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat, have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come, over a way that which tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past, 'til now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who hast by Thy might, led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest, our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand, may we forever stand,
True to our God, true to our native land.

FAIR DILLARD

WILLIAM STUART NELSON & FREDERICK D. HALL

Fair Dillard,
Gleaming white and spacious green,
We love thy every blade and tree.
We love thy breathless days, thy nights serene,
Thy halls where men are men and free.
Arise, O sons and daughters, hail thy queen,
And pledge for aye, thy loyalty.

Fair Dillard,
Flaming love and learning's light,
Teach us each day, each passing hour.
A deep'ning love for beauty, truth and right.
Source of all nobleness and pow'r.
And, through the joyous day, the dreaded night,
Forever guide, Alma Mater!
Forever guide, Alma Mater!

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

The history of traditional academic dress is traced to the 12th century when Oxford University was founded and to the medieval European universities of the 14th century. Although European universities follow varied patterns in cut and color of gown and type of head dress, academic dress at American colleges and universities is fairly standardized.

The traditional academic gown is usually black. The pattern varies with the degrees held. The bachelor's gown has a simple design, with long, pointed sleeves as its distinguishing mark. The master's gown has oblong sleeves with the rear cut square and the front featuring a cutaway arc.

The most elaborate academic costume is the doctoral gown, with velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars across the sleeves. The velvet is usually black, but it may be a color designating the subject to which the degree pertains.

The hood of the doctoral gown features velvet trimmings, the width of which designates the level of the degree. The color of the hood indicates the major field of study, and its lining identifies the institution that granted the degree. Dillard's doctoral gown is navy blue with front panels and four cobalt blue chevrons trimmed in metallic gold.

The following colors are associated with the various academic disciplines:

EXODIE C. ROE, III

ASSOCIATE ADMINISTRATOR AT THE U.S. GENERAL SERVICES
ADMINISTRATION

Exodie C. Roe, III '06 serves as Associate Administrator for the Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization (OSDBU) at the U.S. General Services Administration.

In 2007, he started his government service with Congressman Jerry McNerney of California, rising to become his senior policy advisor. From 2019 to 2021, he served as the Director of Policy and External Affairs for the Congressional Black Caucus under Chairwoman Karen Bass in the 116th Congress.

As head of OSDBU, Exodie has nationwide responsibility for GSA small business programs and is the chief advocate for small and disadvantaged businesses. OSDBU promotes increased access to GSA nationwide procurement opportunities, and engages in activities that make it possible for the small business community to meet key contracting experts and receive counseling on the federal procurement process.

Prior to joining GSA, Exodie was the Director of Policy and External Affairs for the Congressional Black Caucus. For the past 14 years, he dedicated his career to public service in various staff positions in the U.S. Congress.

During his congressional service, Roe worked with congressional leadership and congressional members on political strategy, strategic communications, regulatory issues, advocacy, and a broad range of public policy initiatives, including small business legislation to strengthen minority and disadvantaged businesses. In 2019, he was honored by his alma mater as a “40 under 40” inductee for his public service achievements.

A native of Stockton, California, Exodie Roe is a graduate of Dillard University with honors. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science.

DANIEL C. THOMPSON/ SAMUEL DUBOIS COOK HONORS PROGRAM

“DILLARD UNIVERSITY IS A BEAUTIFUL PLACE, BUT IT IS ALSO A CULTURE” - DR. DANIEL C. THOMPSON

The philosophy embedded in, “we learn not for school, but for life,” forms the foundation of belief for the Daniel C. Thompson/Samuel DuBois Cook Honors Program at Dillard University. This philosophical basis declares the program’s dual commitment to nurturing the intellectual potential of highly motivated students and to providing a moral and ethical framework for responsible social activism in a multicultural, global context.

The Daniel C. Thompson/Samuel DuBois Cook Honors Program is dedicated to producing graduates who excel, become world leaders, are broadly educated, culturally aware, and concerned with improving the human condition.

Using a highly personalized, learning-centered approach, Dillard University Honors students will meet the competitive demands of a diverse, global, and technologically advanced society.

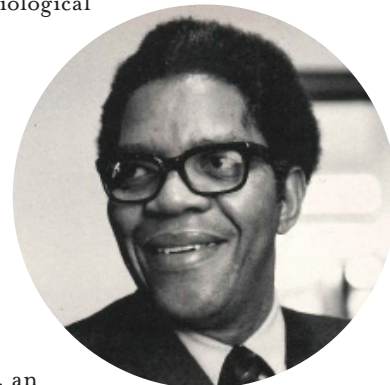

Dr. Daniel C. Thompson was a longtime staple at Dillard University beginning in 1945. Throughout his tenure, Dr. Thompson served as: instructor of sociology, professor of sociology, chairman of the social science division and vice president of academic affairs.

A native of Green County, Georgia, Dr. Thompson received his B.A. at Clark College, his B.D. from Gammon Theological Seminary, his M.A. (Sociology) at Atlanta University, M.A. from Harvard (Social Relations), and his Ph.D. (Sociology) from Columbia University in 1955.

Dr. Thompson was also a renowned author, whose works covered many aspects of African American life. The books: “A Black Elite: A Profile of Graduates of UNCF Colleges” (1986), “Sociology of The Black Experience” (1974), “Private Black Colleges At The Crossroads” (1973), “The Negro Leadership Class” (1963), “The Eighth Generation” (1959), are scholarly works meant to convey certain components of the African American experience consisting of changes measured in time, sexism, sociological shifts, and social class status.

“Dillard University is a living testament to the creativity, vitality, nobility and power of the human spirit.”

—Dr. Samuel DuBois Cook

Dr. Samuel DuBois Cook led Dillard University as President from 1974-1997. A native of Griffin, Georgia, Dr. Cook received his B.A in history from Morehouse College in 1948, an M.A. from Ohio State University in 1950, as well as, a Ph.D. in 1954, both in political science. His teaching experience includes positions at Atlanta University, Duke University, and UCLA. When hired at Duke, he became the first African American professor to teach at the university, also the first African American to hold a regular faculty appointment at any predominantly White college or university in the entire South. He also served as a Social Science Specialist to the United States Army from 1953-55. Dr. Cook’s writings include articles on Martin Luther King, Jr., African American revolutionary movements, and political movements in the South.

Cook sought to elevate Dillard in all aspects, but held the students in special regards. Cook wanted to instill a particular pride into Dillard students, with a major focus on academic excellence.
